

I oppose any vote that supports further consolidation of the media. As current media conditions attest, we urgently need a motion to move media to serve public, not private interests. I urge you to retain current ownership rules.